Appointments

University

2024-Present	Full Clinical Professor, University of California Riverside School of Medicine, CA
2023-Present	Professor, California University of Sciences and Medicine, CA
2019-Present	Clinical Professor, Rowan University School of Osteopathic Medicine, NJ
2020-Present	Adjunct Assistant Professor, Anesthesiology, Johns Hopkins School of Medicine, MD
2021-2021	Chief, Head, Medical Director, Pain, MD Anderson-Scripps Health System, CA
2012-2017	Vice-Chair, Drexel University College of Medicine, PA
2012-2017	Associate Professor, Drexel University College of Medicine, PA
2012-2017	Fellowship Director, Regional Anesthesiology, Drexel University College of Medicine, PA
2011-2017	Medical Director, Pain/Regional Anesthesiology, Drexel University College of Medicine, PA
2008-2011	Assistant Professor, University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine, Anesthesiology, PA

Hospital

2024-Present	Anesthesiologist, Pain, University of California-San Diego (UCSD) Physician Network, CA
2022-Present	Anesthesiologist, Pain, University of California-Los Angeles (UCLA), Los Angeles, CA
2021-Present	Anesthesiologist, Pain, Johns Hopkins Medicine, Washington DC
2020-Present	Anesthesiologist, Pain, Scripps Health, San Diego, CA
2023-2024	Anesthesiologist, Kaiser Permanente Group of Southern California, CA
2011-2020	Attending Physician, University of Pennsylvania Princeton Medicine, NJ
2011-2020	Attending Physician, Robert Wood Johnson Health System, Hamilton, NJ
2011-2020	Attending Physician, Virtua Health System, Voorhees, NJ
2007-2008	Attending Physician, Washington Hospital Center, Washington DC

Government

2023-Present	Delegate, US Pharmacopeia, on behalf of American Society of Anesthesiologists, DC
2020-Present	Special Government Employee, US Food & Drug Administration, Silver Springs, MD
2019-Present	Advisor, National Academies of Sciences, Engineering and Medicine, Washington DC
2023-2023	Chief Surgeon, City of New York, NY
2020-2022	Scientific Advisor, Department of Defense, Congressionally Directed Medical Research, VA
2020-2022	Technical Advisor, National Quality Forum, Washington D.C.
2015-2018	Special Government Employee, US Food & Drug Administration, Silver Springs, MD

Education and Training

Undergraduate

1994-1997	Bachelor of Science, (BS) Pharmacy, Rutgers University, New Brunswick, NJ
1992-1994	The College of New Jersey, Pre-Medical Education, Ewing, NJ

Doctoral/Graduate

2020-2020	Harvard Business School, General Management Program (GMP), Boston, MA
2017-2018	Princeton University, Master of Public Policy (MPP), Health, Health Policy, NJ
1999-2003	UMDNJ – Rowan, Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine (DO), Stratford, NJ
1994-1999	Rutgers University, BS, Doctor of Pharmacy (BS, PharmD), New Brunswick, NJ

Professional Education

2017-2018	Finance & Public Policy, Graduate Associate, Princeton University, NJ
2017-2018	Gender Studies, Liechtenstein Institute Fellow, Princeton University, NJ
2014-2016	Founding Fellow, Institute of Coaching, Harvard Medical School McLean Hospital, MA
2015-2015	Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Biotechnology & Pharmaceuticals, MA
2014-2014	AAMC, Leadership Development, Association of American Medical Colleges
2010-2011	Wharton Total Leadership Program, University of Pennsylvania, PA
2010-2011	Pain Advocacy and Communications Fellowship, Mayday Foundation, Washington DC

Medical Education

2007-2008	Interventional Pain Fellowship, Johns Hopkins Baltimore, MD
2006-2007	Chief Resident, Anesthesiology, Georgetown University, Washington, D.C.
2006-2007	Clinical Scientist Training, National Institute of Health, Bethesda, MD
2004-2007	Anesthesiology, Residency, Georgetown University, Washington, D.C.
2003-2004	Internship, Transitional Internship, Crozer Health System, Philadelphia, PA

Life Sciences/Biopharmaceutical Education

1999-1999	New Product Development, Janssen Pharmaceuticals, Titusville, NJ
1998-1998	Managed Care Division, Merck-Medco, Montvale, NJ
1997-1997	Research and Development, Bristol Myers Squibb, New Brunswick, NJ

CLINICAL ACTIVITIES

Clinical Focus

As a seasoned pain physician with a strong background in pharmacology, I specialize in providing comprehensive care for patients suffering from acute and chronic pain conditions. My clinical practice is rooted in delivering personalized treatment plans tailored to address the unique needs of everyone, with a particular emphasis on optimizing pain management strategies. Drawing from my expertise in pharmacology, I bring a deep understanding of medication mechanisms and interactions to my approach in pain management. This allows me to leverage a wide range of pharmacological interventions effectively, ensuring the best possible outcomes for my patients. With a foundation in interventional pain management and anesthesiology, I employ a multidisciplinary approach to pain management, integrating my knowledge of pharmacology with insights gained from critical care and perioperative settings. This comprehensive perspective enables me to develop tailored interventions that address not only pain relief but also optimize sedation and facilitate rehabilitation. Furthermore, my commitment to advancing pain medicine is reflected in my active involvement in research and education initiatives. Through my leadership role in clinical research programs and collaborative efforts with fellow healthcare professionals, I strive to enhance our understanding of pain mechanisms and develop innovative pharmacological approaches to pain management. By blending evidence-based practices with compassionate care, I am dedicated to helping individuals regain control over their pain and improve their quality of life. With a strong foundation in pharmacology, I am well-equipped to make a meaningful difference in the lives of my patients and contribute to the advancement of pain management practices. As a renowned physician, pharmacist, and healthcare leader, I am acclaimed for my visionary, patient-centered approach to innovation. My transformational leadership focused on human-centricity has garnered global recognition, including being named a World Economic Forum Expert Member. As Chief Surgeon in New York City, I have spearheaded initiatives to improve healthcare delivery and outcomes. My expertise has been sought by prestigious organizations, and I have served as an advisor on regulatory affairs and public health matters. My pioneering work on the opioid epidemic and groundbreaking research on revamping pain assessment in hospitals have earned me numerous accolades. I am an accomplished author and sought-after voice on complex health crises, and my leadership in women's health and pain management solidifies my position as a preeminent force driving positive change in healthcare.

Clinical Service in Pain Management: In my role as a pain physician anesthesiologist, I work as a physician in the provision of pain management in the community setting on a volunteer basis.

National Clinical (Service) Responsibilities

Multi Institutional Academic and Clinical Service: As a national leader in pain management and anesthesiology, I have had the privilege of working as an active practicing physician, providing pain management and anesthesiology services in various clinical settings. Additionally, I have taught at multiple prestigious institutions on a volunteer and as needed basis. This broad depth of experience has allowed me to share my expertise with a wide range of students, colleagues, and patients while also staying up to date with the latest developments in my field.

EDUCATIONAL ACTIVITIES

With a primary educational focus on pain management, particularly in pharmacological therapies, innovation, and health policy, I am deeply committed to advancing the field of pain medicine. My passion extends to exploring innovative options for addressing emerging challenges faced by pain patients, driven by a dedication to improving their quality of life. In addition to my expertise in pain management, my educational pursuits encompass clinical research design, biostatistics, and ethics in human subject's research. This comprehensive knowledge equips me with the necessary skills to conduct rigorous studies aimed at advancing our understanding of pain mechanisms and evaluating the efficacy of novel interventions. Through my educational journey, I am continuously seeking to integrate cutting-edge advancements in pain management with insights gained from health policy and innovation. By staying at the forefront of developments in these areas, I aim to contribute to the formulation of evidence-based policies and the development of innovative solutions to improve pain care delivery. Overall, my educational focus underscores my commitment to addressing the multifaceted challenges of pain management through a holistic approach that encompasses pharmacological therapies, innovation, and health policy. By leveraging my expertise in these areas, I am dedicated to driving positive change in pain care and enhancing outcomes for patients experiencing pain.

Teaching

Educational Program Building / Leadership

- 2024- Pharmacology Professor, University of California Riverside, School of Medicine
Lecturer on pharmacology and while discussing acute respiratory distress for medical students.

- 2024- Girls Invest and Financial Literacy, California Council of Economic of Education
Advancing education on financial literacy to improve public health

- 2024- Anesthesiology Faculty Advisor, University of California Riverside, School of Medicine
Advisor to medical students and next generation leaders focused on the specialty and shaping future leaders in the field.

- 2024- Open Innovation Hub, University of California Riverside, School of Medicine
Driving transformative education as a faculty advisor while spearheading a hub that fosters shared learning and collaboration and creativity. <https://bit.ly/m/Open-Innovation-Lab>

2023- Member Expert, World Economic Forum

Biotechnology, Pandemics and Emerging Threats
<https://www.weforum.org/people/anita-gupta/>

2023- Program Lead, IDEAS Lab

Designed research program in collaboration with CA based medical school on health innovation. This research program led to over 8 research studies and disseminated in anesthesiology and pain societies regionally through collaboration with CA state regional medical societies focused on anesthesiology.

2020- Volunteer Adjunct Faculty, DEI Committee, ACCM, Johns Hopkins

Member of the DEI ACCM Committee and contributor to book club on matters related to diversity, inclusion and equity for the department.

2020- Volunteer Adjunct Faculty, Johns Hopkins India Institute

Affiliate member of the institute and contributor on advocacy for international global health in India for women's health and education and fundraising efforts for the institute

2011-2017 Vice Chair, Pain Division

Designed pain educational curriculum in collaboration with PA based medical school on pain and pharmacology core principles. This educational curriculum expanded over medical students, residents, attendings to local and regional communities.

Clinical Demonstration Activities to external audience, on or off campus

2015 Course Instructor

Classroom instruction for clinical trainees and residents

- 2023-Present Clinical Colloquium and Clinical College Education Instructor
Medical student education on core education pre-clinical concepts
- 2023–Present Clinical Skills Training and Pre-Clerkship Education Instructor
Medical student education during pre-clerkship education

- 2023–Present Airway Management and Intubation: Clinical Skills and Emergency Management Instructor
Medical student clinical skills orientation and lecture series
- 2023–Present Masterclass on Ultrasound Use in Regional Anesthesiology Instructor
Medical student clinical skills orientation and lecture series
- 2023–Present Resident Education on Ultrasound Guidance for Central Line Placement Instructor
Resident clinical skills lecture and workshops
Ultrasound guidance workshop on central line access, standardized patient interviews, emergency training using simulation settings.
- 2023–Present Video Laryngoscopy and Intubation Simulation Workshop Instructor
Designed and implemented an educational simulation workshop around core airway management on video laryngoscopy and basic intubation skills for medical students using simulation concepts including evidence-based medicine.

Clinical instruction

- 2023-Present Medical Student Curriculum Development, Clinical Case Development Instructor
Clinical Case Development for Education Discussion (~8 cases per year)
- 2012-2017 Anesthesiology Resident Training Instructor
Supervise/teach residents during rotation (~4 residents per month)
- 2012-2017 Regional Anesthesiology Fellows Instructor
Supervise/teach subspecialty fellows during clinical service (~1 fellows/year)
- 2012-2017 Anesthesia Medical Students Instructor
Supervise/teach in the operating room (~4 students per month)
- 2012-2017 Pharmacology Lecture, Medical Student Instructor
Medical student instruction/mentoring on pain and opioid pharmacology

RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

Research Focus

My research focus as a pain physician expert encompasses a broad spectrum of investigations aimed at advancing our understanding and treatment of pain. I am deeply committed to exploring innovative approaches that integrate insights from pharmacology, neurobiology, and clinical practice to address the multifaceted nature of pain. One area of my research endeavors is dedicated to unraveling the underlying mechanisms of chronic pain conditions, such as neuropathic pain and fibromyalgia. Through rigorous investigation, I strive to identify novel therapeutic targets that can lead to more effective treatments and improved outcomes for patients. In addition to basic science inquiries, I am actively involved in clinical research aimed at evaluating the efficacy and safety of pharmacological interventions for pain management. By conducting rigorous clinical trials and observational studies, I seek to optimize treatment strategies while minimizing the risks associated with analgesic medications. Furthermore, I am passionate about health policy research related to pain management. I endeavor to influence policy decisions at the national level by providing evidence-based recommendations that promote access to effective pain care while addressing concerns surrounding opioid misuse and addiction. Overall, my research focus reflects my dedication to advancing the field of pain medicine through comprehensive investigations that bridge the gap between basic science, clinical practice, and public health policy. Through innovative research initiatives, I aim to alleviate the burden of pain for individuals worldwide and improve the quality of life for those living with chronic pain conditions.

Research Program Building and Leadership

SYSTEM INNOVATION AND QUALITY IMPROVEMENT ACTIVITIES

System Innovation Focus

In my endeavor to innovate healthcare systems, I am dedicated to crafting and executing transformative strategies that elevate patient care, enhance healthcare outcomes, and optimize resource allocation. Drawing from my expertise as a pain physician, my primary mission is to reshape healthcare systems to better cater to the needs of individuals grappling with chronic pain and complex medical conditions. Central to my approach is the utilization of cutting-edge technology and data analytics to streamline clinical workflows and bolster decision-making processes. By harnessing electronic health records, telemedicine platforms, and predictive analytics, I endeavor to facilitate seamless communication among healthcare providers, ultimately fostering more personalized and efficient patient care. Moreover, I am deeply committed to fostering interdisciplinary collaboration and care coordination across healthcare domains. Through initiatives such as integrated pain management programs and multidisciplinary care teams, I aim to dismantle silos and cultivate a comprehensive approach to patient care that addresses not only physical ailments but also psychosocial and emotional well-being. Additionally, I advocate for policy reforms that champion system innovation and healthcare transformation. By engaging with policymakers, healthcare leaders, and advocacy organizations, I strive to shape legislation and regulations that advance value-based care, incentivize innovation, and enhance access to top-tier healthcare services for all. Overall, my system innovation focus epitomizes my dedication to catalyzing positive change within the healthcare landscape. Through a blend of innovation, collaboration, and advocacy, I am committed to building resilient and patient-centric healthcare systems that empower individuals to lead healthier and more fulfilling lives.

System Innovation and Quality Improvement efforts outside of JHMI:

Professor, Medicine, Digital Art of Medicine and the Pursuit of Health Equity

As a leader in the digital transformation of healthcare, I have significantly advanced the understanding of the digital art of medicine, with a strong emphasis on trust, empathy, and health equity. My keynote address at the National Academy of Medicine and contributions to pivotal reports, such as the NASEM's "Reimagining Patient-Centered Care During a Pandemic," highlight my commitment to integrating digital trust and patient advocacy into clinical practice. I received the NAP Patient Advocacy Award for my innovative work in defining digital health equity and have presented at prestigious forums, including the Gates Foundation and NIH Innovation Equity Forum, focusing on equitable healthcare access for underserved populations. My research has been featured in notable publications like Forbes and McKinsey, and I have developed and recorded educational content for institutions such as Florida Atlantic University, further solidifying my role as an expert in telehealth and compassionate care. Through mentorship and collaboration with industry leaders, I strive to foster a multidisciplinary workforce dedicated to improving patient outcomes and addressing disparities in healthcare.

2023-2023

Chief Surgeon, City of New York

As Chief Surgeon for the City of New York, I spearheaded transformative initiatives to enhance the quality, safety, and accessibility of uniformed members care across the city's public healthcare system. Collaborating with an interdisciplinary team of clinicians, administrators, and policy experts, I championed evidence-based strategies to streamline workflows, optimize resource allocation, and implement standardized best practices. Under my leadership, we launched comprehensive programs, leveraging data analytics and performance benchmarking to identify areas for process optimization.

2022-2023

Anesthesiologist, Department of Anesthesiology, University of California, Los Angeles

As an attending physician anesthesiology, per diem staff member in the Department of Anesthesiology at the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA), I shared in the shared roles of advancing academic excellence, fostering interprofessional collaboration, and driving improvement initiatives within the renowned health system. In collaboration with faculty and residents, I identified areas for workforce well-being and team-based care, and while focusing on patient experience best practices. Additionally, I shared educational models to focus on innovative models of pain analgesia by dissemination of best practices during clinical teaching among medical students and clinicians, contributing to improved patient care across the UCLA Health system.

2021-2021

Head, Pain Division, Scripps Health

In 2021, while serving as the Head of the Pain Division at Scripps Health, the institution faced an unprecedented cybersecurity crisis that threatened the integrity of operations and the privacy of patients' data. A sophisticated cyberattack breached systems, exposing vulnerabilities in digital infrastructure and compromising sensitive medical records. Recognizing the gravity of the situation, I swiftly assembled a cross-functional pain task force comprising pain team experts, and senior leadership to mount a coordinated response to contain the breach, safeguard patient data, and ensure the continuity of critical pain management services and moving to paper-based records. In close collaboration with our team, we implemented a comprehensive pain treatment plan with the cross functional teams on an interim basis. I took the lead in coordinating with pain services and to ensure compliance with data privacy regulations and to leverage their expertise in incident response and recovery efforts. This involved implementing manual processes, reallocating resources, and coordinating with other healthcare providers to ensure access to care for our pain patients.

2012-2017

Vice Chair, Pain Division, Pain Quality and Program Development Initiative
Drexel University College of Medicine

Led the development and implementation of Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) for the perioperative pain service, encompassing regional anesthesia, chronic pain management, acute pain management, palliative care, and interventional pain procedures. Established comprehensive metrics to measure service quality, efficiency, and patient outcomes across diverse pain management modalities. Facilitated a substantial over 100% year-over-year growth from 2012 to 2017 in the pain services, driven by data-driven decision-making, continuous process improvements, and the implementation of evidence-based best practices based on the KPI analysis.

System Innovation and Quality Improvement Program Building/Leadership:

2012-2017

Vice Chair, Pain Division, Pain Service Line and Leadership Development Initiative, Drexel University College of Medicine

Served as the lead for the Perioperative Pain Service, overseeing a multidisciplinary team and driving substantial growth of over 100% year-over-year from 2012 to 2017. Implemented process improvements, expanded service offerings, and optimized resource allocation to meet the increasing demand for perioperative pain management services. Pioneered the development and implementation of Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) for pain services across regional anesthesia, acute pain management, chronic pain management, palliative care, and interventional pain procedures. Developed a comprehensive framework to measure and monitor service quality, patient outcomes, and operational efficiency across diverse pain management service lines. Achieved a remarkable over 100% year-over-year increase in the number of training initiatives from 2012 to 2017, reflecting the growing demand and recognition of the program's effectiveness.

2012-2017 Vice Chair, Pain Division, Regional Fellowship Development Initiative
Drexel University College of Medicine

Spearheaded the development and execution of Regional and Ultrasound Training initiatives, aimed at enhancing the knowledge and skills of residents, upskilling of attending physicians, and medical students in the field of perioperative pain management.

2012-2017 Vice Chair, Pain Division, Pain Research, Education, Development Initiative
Drexel University College of Medicine

Designed and delivered comprehensive educational programs, including didactic sessions, hands-on workshops, and case-based discussions, covering the latest evidence-based practices, emerging techniques, and best practices in perioperative pain management.
